Ain't nothing like the real thing Hoffman, Constantine Von CIO v13n22 PP: 96-106 Sep 1, 2000 ISSN: 0894-9301 JRNL CODE: CIO

ABSTRACT: Real - time   inventory   management capability lets a company constantly track every product it sells from when it's manufactured, or when it arrives in its warehouse, to when it hits the buyer's door. Some websites have done the necessary back-end integration to be able to tell their customers the truth about whether a product is in   stock . But many have had to resort to workarounds that fall far short of offering real-time information. Companies now get orders in many different ways - phone, websites, e - mail , fax or in-person at brick-and-mortar stores - making it harder to ensure that inventory information is accurate.

TEXT:
...Microsoft Corporation today announced a major agreement to deliver and distribute a comprehensive solution for Internet   retailing by incorporating VeriFone virtual point-of-sale (vPOS) software into Microsoft Merchant System. The combination of Microsoft Merchant System and VeriFone vPOS software represents the first deployment of a dual Internet retailing and payment solution and is available today to merchants participating in the Microsoft Merchant System...

...compelling solution that combines powerful, easy-to-use tools for creating and managing an online store with real-world payment processing," said Bill Gates, chairman and CEO of Microsoft. "VeriFone's payment solution helps Microsoft provide merchants with the transaction capabilities required to make Internet commerce a reality today." "We are very pleased to be able to join Microsoft's leadership ability in creating software applications, and its innovative approach to Internet commerce software with VeriFone's leadership in secure payment transaction products," said Hatim A. Tyabji, chairman...

...of global merchants and financial institutions, this agreement should further accelerate the deployment of secure Internet commerce ." Microsoft Merchant System is an integrated Internet retailing solution that allows companies to develop Internet storefronts quickly and easily. Microsoft Merchant System is designed to provide unparalleled functionality for Internet commerce , including detailed user and order tracking , the ability to conduct dynamic promotion-based merchandising, support for any product database schema, extensible APIs, and store creation tools such as sample store templates and support for most HTML authoring tools. This integrated solution is intended to reduce the amount of custom development time and effort required by companies to set up a commerce site on the Internet. VeriFone's Internet commerce products, vPOS and vGATE, provide open Internet payment solutions for financial institutions and merchants. The...

Ironside Technologies' Ironworks is highlighted in a discussion of the order management market, which is maturing, but provides only the most rudimentary levels of the functions needed. Spokespeople for industry leaders, including i2 Technologies, Click, NetVendor, Entigo, and...
...Companies, a distributor of equipment and nonfood supplies to the hospitality industry, chose the Ironworks Internet   e - commerce system, which provides a direct, real - time link to a customer order management system. The system provides the most current information for product availability , order confirmation, and shipping details. A full e-catalog provides customers with full product specifications...

...standards. A visit to Boelter's online system allows a hotel or restaurant chain's management to generate reports based on individual locations. Among topics covered are the two order management views (outward to the customer and inward to the company) provided, extended business-to-business (B2B) relationships; and the influence of enterprise resource planning (ERP) and supply chain ·management (SCM) suppliers.

...Christmas shopping season, the online e-tailer was astounded to discover that customers preferred to send the digital 'IOUs' as gifts, rather than truffles or teddy bears. Sales numbers were between...

...impact sales, such as the server breakdowns experienced last year by Toys R Us. Among e - commerce companies, lack of physical experience in such areas as operations, marketing, and administration left many online shoppers annoyed about out -of- stock notices, late or skipped deliveries, and too-difficult return policies. Because the online   retail market is expected to be 85 percent bigger this year, e-tailers have much more...

...the order-taking side with a back- end database of inventory information, and will allow real - time   inventory   level   tracking and uploading of new images on an as-needed basis. Egreetings will also offer digital certificates that can be redeemed at 27 more online ˙ retail partners, including Godiva Chocolatier and FTD.com. Activities underway at
